Permit Issued Long Ago.

Supt. Mead. of the Bureau of Construction of the Water Department, then produced a bundle of papers and among them he found a permit which had been issued to a contractor some years ago to tap the city's main at the point where the pipe was found. His application for the permit said that he wished to sapply the row of houses which he intended to build along that street. He was given a permit to tap the main with a two-inch pipe. The houses were never built and the pipe to didameter than the permit authorized. The mystery then was who could have to caused the pipe to connect with the Citizens' Water Supply Company's main. "I certainly knew nothing about this pipe," said Mr. Meyer, when he had recovered his composure. "My company's main, is not in the business of stealing water. I shall look over my books and see if the tree is any information I have not seen."

City Bought It Back.

The City of New York, being short of water in Long Island City, has been purchasing water for that part of Queens Borough from the Citizens' com-Others Borough Four the city at one pany.

Mr. Meyer's company had been getting the water from the city at one point and not paying for it, and then had been selling it back again to the city at $65 a million gallons.

The water taken from the city, valued at $65 a million gallons, would amount to about $4,270.50 in a year.

Deputy Commissioner of Water Supply Cozier said that Mr. Meyer would probably get a good sized bill from the city. ELDERLY MAN DROPS

Music In Summer Home Without Any Pianist.

THE SUMMER HOME NEEDS MUSIC to make it perfect-music that you may have at command; music that you may enjoy in producing and others may enjoy in hearing. And such music may most easily be assured if you own either one of these instruments:

The Reiman Playerpiano at $475. The Heller Playerpiano at $550.

These two instruments are in the first place Pianos of superior merit that may be played by hand in the usual manner. But they may also be played by aid of the music roll, for within the casing of each one is installed a Pianoplayer, which is at once the most sensitive and easily operated mechanism of the sort yet invented.

We stand sponsor for these instruments absolutely. They are made expressly and exclusively for us. They are backed by the Loeser guarantee. They are instruments which we have considerable pride in selling. Furthermore, by having them made directly for us, by eliminating the usual middle profits, by bringing the profit down to the fair basis which insures one price to every one without favoritism or any ossibility of "getting inside," these two Pianoplayers are

The Greatest Values for the Money That May Be Had Anywhere in the Country.

Come in to-morrow and try them, or hear them played. You will like the artistic cases, the full, round, musical tone; the ease and flexibility of operation. You will find that the whole world of music is open to you this Summer, if you own one of these instruments-and you may purchase on the easiest monthly terms if you wish it. We make SUNDAY WORLD WANTS WORK no extra charge for this accommodation beyond 4% simple interest on the deferred payments.
